The Top Ten ALL-AMERICA ROSE WINNERS

These Roses were selected in the spring of 1950 by the AARS* as the most outstanding varieties introduced to the public since All-America Rose Selections began making awards in 1939.

They cover a good range of colors, from Mirandy, a deep red, to Peace, a rich yellow daintily edged pink. All are vigorous growers and produce an abundance of blooms. Equally beautiful in a flower bed or arranged in your favorite vase, all or any of these TEN BEST All-America Roses will give you a lifetime of satisfaction.

If you are one of those who do not as yet have KATHERINE T. MARSHALL, RUBAIYAT, LOWELL THOMAS, NOCTURNE, SAN FERNANDO, CHARLOTTE ARMSTRONG, FORTY-NINER, PEACE, TALLYHO or MIRANDY, order them now or for later delivery.

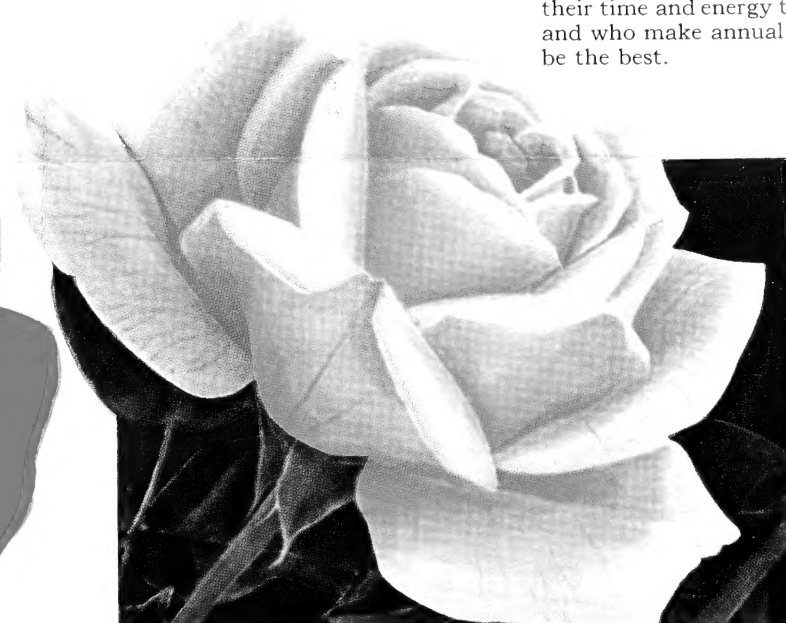

*The AARS is comprised of a group of men who devote their time and energy to the testing of better Roses for America and who make annual awards to the new Roses that prove to be the best.
